New York City, New York Jun 8, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Few cryptocurrencies in the world have made so much talk about themselves after only 3 weeks of presence on international markets. MM72 is undoubtedly the protagonist token of the last 3 weeks.

Both in the markets and in social media. The groups and followers of this project grow, and Crypto influencers and youtubers start sharing MM72.

All these attentions, however, usually have a price and the bill was not long in being presented to the Team. In fact, MM72 was not indifferent to the organizations of scammers who immediately organized the classic Air Drop SCAM in the wake of the media coverage of MM72.

With the website, trust-padx.com/mm72/ and a fake group on telegram called MM72official (but where the post of messages is forbidden) the organization has lured users with the false promise to triple the MM72s they sent to a specific wallet, with the result of stealing from users over 400 million tokens which were promptly sold on the famous swap DEX pancakeswap.finance causing the price to drop immediately after last week's outstanding performance, when MM72 posted a performance of +850% and was third among the world's top gainers.

But you know, prudent cryptoinvestors where there is a collapse in price see the opportunity of a pump, and in fact already in the early hours of this morning 09 June, MM72 has shot to the top and is Coingecko's TOP GAINER with a performance of + 1635%.

Investors' attention, in addition to the mere speculation opportunity, is certainly driven by a real MM72 mania that is spreading on youtube and on social networks where videos dedicated to MM72 by crypto influencers from all over the world are proliferating.
