

The Paper Store Commits to Helping Mothers in Crisis

By Carrying the Mom Bomb Line of Products, of which 100% of profits are donated to charity

Shrewsbury, Massachusetts Jun 2, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Mom Bomb, a 501c3 Charity that sells all-natural, luxury bath products for men, women, and children is pleased to announce that their products will be carried in 10 locations of The Paper Store, a family-run business that celebrates the art of gift-giving through unique and fun gifts.

Heather Roberts, founder of Mom Bomb was elated when The Paper Store agreed to test their products in 10 of their stores to start. "I was so pleasantly surprised by the immediate willingness to get involved and help get the word out about our charity and how we are helping mothers in crisis from every person I interacted with at The Paper Store," Roberts says. This support is crucial to meeting the organization's goals of helping one million mothers in crisis.

Mom Bomb products were created to fund the charity, as 100% of the profits go to grants helping families in crisis. Mom Bomb provides childcare, housekeeping, laundry service, or meal delivery to families facing a crisis. The goal is to provide stability to the mothers, often the glue that holds the family together, during a tenuous time, so that the family can regroup and focus on getting through. Moms in need of assistance can apply through the MomBomb.org site to provide a brief description of their story.

Mom Bomb Products can be found in the following Paper Store Locations: Leominster, Beverly, Hingham, Dedham, Mansfield, and Natick, in Massachusetts. The Concord, NH store and the store in Sarasota Town Center in Florida.

Media Contact

Expose Yourself Public Relations

heather@exposeyourselfpr.com

Source : Mom Bomb

See on IssueWire