Hollywood, California Jun 27, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - American recording artist George Hodos brings his sultry, distinguished sound to the European market with the release of his first single Eleven Hours, Six Thousand Miles on the German label Chubb Records. <https://youtu.be/hjpiRE1JAgc>

Energetic, thought-provoking, heartfelt, smooth, and easy to listen to, the song takes you on George's journey between continents and life turns experienced as a result. "Eleven Hours, Six Thousand Miles" is quintessential of George's new album and his personal life story. The song is about long-distance relationships that became a common phenomenon in our modern digital reality.

"Eleven Hours, Six Thousand Miles" has a great potential to be a hit. This song is a perfect blend of Pop, Indie, and contemporary R&B. It organically reflects the new updated style of George as an artist showcasing his natural singing talent and musicality. " - Dominicon Chubb, CEO of Chubb Records

George Hodos made his way into American show business with a sensational hit "Just A Man" on the Dauman/Universal label in collaboration with the legendary rap star Snoop Dogg. The single was charted in the Billboard Top 40 for 10 consecutive weeks and played non-stop on the radio stations worldwide.
