Get to know General Surgeon Dr. Agostino Cervone, who serves patients throughout the State of New York.

New York City, New York Jul 22, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A board-certified general surgeon, Dr. Cervone is affiliated with Peconic Bay Medical Group, working with patients at their offices in Riverhead, Hampton Bays, and Cutchogue, New York. Specializing in advanced laparoscopic surgery, he has extensive experience in minimally invasive breast surgery, and hernia surgery, and is one of the region's leading experts in complicated abdominal hernia repair. He is also one of the few surgeons in this region with advanced training in the use of the world-class DaVinci Robotic Surgery System.

With conveniently located offices throughout Eastern Suffolk County, Peconic Bay Medical Center provides a comprehensive range of health care services close to home. It is part of their commitment to serving all patients' healthcare needs and advancing the quality of life and health in all the communities they serve.

Graduating with his medical degree from the Ross University School of Medicine in 1994, Dr. Cervone went on to further his training by completing his residency in general surgery at St. Agnes Hospital Baltimore in 1999.

Recognized as a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons (FACS), the doctor is board-certified in general surgery by the American Board of Surgery (ABS). The ABS is an independent, non-profit organization located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, founded for the purpose of certifying surgeons who have met a defined standard of education, training, and knowledge.

General surgery is a surgical specialty that focuses on abdominal contents including the esophagus, stomach, small bowel, colon, liver, pancreas, gallbladder, appendix and bile ducts, and often the thyroid gland. A general surgeon performs a wide range of abdominal surgeries for many forms of intestinal and abdominal wall neoplasms, gallbladder disease, and gastric and pancreatic disease. They follow the patient through critical care and surgical recovery all the way to outpatient care.

Among his various accolades, Dr. Cervone has been the recipient of the On-Time Doctor Award (2018, 2015), Patients' Choice Award (2015, 2012, 2011, 2009, 2008), and Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2015, 2014, 2012).
