

Little Learners Premier Child Care Center and Preschool Opens a New Location in Kenvil, NJ

Roxbury, New Jersey Jul 25, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Little Learners, a regional premier early childhood education provider, is opening a preschool and child care center in Kenvil, NJ.

This is Little Learners' third location in northern New Jersey, along with locations in Rockaway and Budd Lake. They are nurturing, enriching private child care centers offering several distinctive services to families and an engaging preschool curriculum to their students. The Little Learners philosophy is to educate the whole child and ensure that every Little Learner graduates socially, emotionally, and academically prepared for success.

"We are excited to join this vibrant community and open our doors to provide the highest quality of child care to local families," said Milan Patel, president, of Little Learners. "The positive response we've received from families has been overwhelming and we look forward to watching each of our children learn, grow and develop in our program."
