

Middle-Aged Californian Traveled to Poland to Interview Ukrainian Soldiers and Refugees and Animated their Stories.

San Jose, California Jul 20, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Kipp Berdiansky a 57-year-old engineer from Silicon Valley traveled to Poland in May to interview Ukrainian soldiers and refugees. He subsequently had Ukrainian illustrators, animators and voice-over freelancers animate the story for a new YouTube channel called Heroes of War.

The purpose of this Youtube Channel (<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC-Wy6sE5NIEJkNdsPMaKHhQ>) is to highlight the Ukrainian War from the point of view of regular civilians and soldiers. Russian cruelty and Ukrainian lives disrupted are the general themes of these stories. The YouTube channel was just created on 7/15/2022 and two new videos are planned to be released every week. All stories have a blend of live interview videos interspersed with animation. The narration of the interview is consistent throughout the entire video.

If an interview with Kipp Berdiansky (and the Ukrainian content providers, or interviewed subjects) is of interest, please contact him directly.
