

Rich's Custom Upholstery Launches New Custom Auto Interior Service

The service can touch up and restore the interior of any vehicle including cars, trucks, SUVs, and jeeps exactly according to the preference of the owner.

Seattle, Washington Jul 20, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Rich's Custom Upholstery, a business that deals in upholstery, has recently launched a custom auto interior service that can fully restore and refurbish the interior of any vehicle including cars, trucks, SUVs, and jeeps. With trademark attention to detail and a reputation for using only premium quality materials, customers can expect to receive top-notch service from the business.

One of the main features of the service is the leather interior kit installation that allows an owner to fully refurbish their vehicle's interior, including the seats, with premium custom leather upholstery. This can entirely change the aesthetics and style of the interior while increasing ride comfort. And the leather kits can be installed with precision in size and shape in any type of vehicle or model to give the interior a flawless trim. For vehicles that need an entire seat replacement, the service provides custom seats from top brands such as Corbeau Pro Car, Superior, and Wedge. These are mostly top-end products made from high-quality materials that are specifically designed either for performance or luxury. For covering, cracks, discolored patches, and unsightly marks on armrests, and other interior panels, the service offers Accuform covers that can hide and conceal all these markings. The service also provides a replacement for door panels with units manufactured by prominent brands such as Chevrolet and Ford.

During the Launch, the business owner said, "Vehicles are really our second home. Besides our home and office, they are among the top places where we spend time the most. So they deserve to be upgraded and adorned with the most comfortable and best-looking upholstery. And it's all for the sake of the owner's comfort, so there's a lot of value in that. And when it comes to auto interior and upholstery, we are the best in the business. If you're looking for a custom auto interior near you, come to us and we will deliver all your needs."

To maintain quality control of their service, the business only uses premium materials in their custom work to which they offer a labor guarantee of one year.
