

"Rise of Elves" Pre-launch Beta Test can make you a profit while playing

Northern Taiwan, Taiwan Jul 5, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - The story of "Rise of Elves": For thousands of years, the world has been ruled by the Elvish Lord, who has kept balance among the land. However, when the Elvish Lord fell, the balance of energy split into nine elements - Water, Fire, Earth, Wind, Beast, Plant, Spirit, Light, and Dark.

The whole world is now in chaos, fighting for the shard of power - Crystal of Element, Elves begin to evolve with each other and create new offspring. Furthermore, some Elves even use magic to summon Heroes from another world. A battle you have never seen is just beginning. In Aflandri, you can collect various Elves, cultivate Heroes, and assemble teams based on your strategy. You can get rewards by clearing the maps and completing the achievements. These rewards can not only be used to make your Elves/Heroes stronger, but you can also trade them on the marketplace to make the Play-to-Earn come true!

There are tens of thousands of players who have joined "Rise of Elves" since it started the Pre-launch Beta Test, not only that, but lots of influencers have also cooperated with "Rise of Elves"! They do not just stop at playing the game, but also shoot videos to promote it, hoping that more players would join in to play and earn together! It seems like lots of "Rise of Elves" players have benefited greatly from the game! And to bring more fun to others, the Development Team is holding an Eggs giveaway event on the official Discord channel every weekend! This event is limited until July 17, so don't miss it! If you haven't joined "Rise of Elves", now is the time!
