

Signing FB Boochie by MBK4L Records has proved to be a Staggering Move by the Record Label

Alabama has da hardest rappers out

Los Angeles, California Jul 21, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - MBK4L Records has established its name in the music industry for introducing many sensational talents. In addition, it has gone on to become the number 1 independent music label out of Birmingham, Alabama. The record label is carrying the experience of working with several talents and is playing its cards in the music industry to leave a mark of excellence. In addition, the most successful project of the record label is to introduce, Lil Bam into the musical scene. The young talent has since gone on to win the respect and recognition of millions of fans worldwide.

Carrying a huge base of subscribers on platforms like YouTube and Facebook, it has to be said that the music label has never failed to entertain the global audience. By the time the news about Rodney (Ralo) Lewis signing FB Boochie spread, the music label went viral online on every blog and street. On the other hand, FB Boochie, being an experienced artist, produced some of the most compelling numbers that the music industry has ever seen. Tracks like "ROI FREESTYLE" and Lil Bam's "Make The Law Freestyle," "Ya Heard," and "WHO SAID" became very popular among listeners around the world.

At present, FB Boochie has made a massive breakthrough in his career by getting featured on multiple platforms like The Birmingham Music Plug top 10 lists and the Famous Animal Viral Freestyle series. The veteran artist has already garnished more than one million views during his time with MBK4L Records. With the pace and the knowledge of hunting down talents like these, the record label looks set to become the CashMoney records in Alabama. Follow them on Instagram to explore more.

Media Contact

The BirminghamMusic Plug

bhammusicplug205@gmail.com

Source : The Birmingham Music Plug

See on IssueWire

