

Tech Support for Businesses and Clinics, Affordable Price

Taleam Systems now offers remote tech support at an affordable price to small businesses and clinics in Ottawa, Toronto and Vancouver regions.

Ottawa-Hull-Gatineau, Ontario Jul 3, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - An Ottawa-based technology company starts offering remote computer services to small businesses and clinics across major Canadian cities. Taleam Systems CEO Melad Ahmadzai says, "Everyone needs tech support, whether you run a clinic or own a business with complex and sensitive IT requirements." The technology company, Taleam Systems was first started in 2011 by Ahmadzai and he still operates to date even while the covid-19 pandemic continues.

Ahmadzai says, "We have always given back to the community and invested in our business so that we can grow for years to come."

Taleam Systems provides affordable tech support for small businesses in Ottawa, Toronto, and Vancouver, saving them money while also solving their technology problems.

Taleam Systems Tech Company's story is one of hope and prosperity. Ahmadzai, the CEO fled the war in Afghanistan at a young age seeking better opportunities in Canada. Last year, he was honoured with the Youth Award for his volunteer work.

To find out more about the tech company Taleam Systems, visit the website www.taleamsystems.com

Media Contact

Taleam Systems

melad@taleamsystems.com

Source : Taleam Systems

See on IssueWire