

The Norns Awards arrives in Italy for its first time.

After two years of the pandemic, the homeland of good taste, fashion and great technology and innovation will host the 2022 edition of the award on September 9th at the Parco Dei Principi Hotel & Spa in Rome.

Singapore, Singapore Jul 13, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - The Eternal City will host the prestigious award, in one of the most iconic hotels in the Italian capital. A one-of-a-kind evening, full of entertainment and surprises. The real added value of this event is networking. In the same place, there will be the excellences of the world, each in their own field and it will be a truly unique opportunity to create new business opportunities and expand valuable acquaintances.

The presenter of the evening is Dave Asher, who with his charisma and his great experience will entertain our guests and winners.

Every year our sole purpose is to make known and reward individuals and companies that have in their DNA the values of excellence, innovation, and creativity and put their employees at the center, said Elisa Mattos co-founder during her statement.

The real purpose of the award is to give international visibility to the winners. Often the efforts behind the successes of an individual or a company are not easily recognized, despite our globalized and digital era, the Norns Awards aims to show that the great values that move people can be more and more at the center of our conversation.

The founding values of the award remain firm and are strengthened with the passage of time.

Conduct business with integrity and equality, focusing on participants' needs.

Provide quality and transparent information.

Reward participants without any kind of distinction or prejudice.
