

The Shining Media collaborating with NewsVoir PR and Newswire

“The collaboration will help The Shining Media and NewsVoir PR and Newswire explores a wider audience base and create meaningful social experiences for readers” he added.

Jaipur, Rajasthan Sep 8, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Indian News publisher The Shining Media digital news media portal has entered into a collaboration with India-based news distributor NewsVoir PR and Newswire.

Under the collaboration, The Shining Media portals will publish content produced by NewsVoir PR and Newswire, covering multiple topics. The group will facilitate synergy between the two companies for news dissemination extending across various countries including India, the United Kingdom, the United States, and Canada.

"This is a major move that adds value to the news industry. According to Aryan Jakhar, founder and editor-in-chief of The Shining Media, "the collaboration brings to the table a significant share of internet news readership under one roof with a user community that numbers in the millions."

“The collaboration will help The Shining Media and NewsVoir PR and Newswire explores a wider audience base and create meaningful social experiences for readers” he added.

For the record, The Shining Media group, with its array of various websites and portals, covers news from India and around the world, featuring a wide range of topics including Business, Entertainment, Sports, Real Estate, Nation and International News, Luxury, Travel, and Tourism.

Headquartered in Jaipur, The Pink City of India, news from The Shining Media's parent portal is available on prominent news distribution platforms like Google News and soon it will be available on News Distribution Platforms like Dailyhunt, Flipboard, and Apple News.

NewsVoir is India's leading news distribution platform. We specialise in creating, distributing, and measuring the distribution of corporate press releases, financial announcements, and multimedia content to media, social platforms, investment communities, and other key audiences in India and around the globe. We are an end-to-end service provider with regard to news and content distribution in India.
