

Todd Andrew All Set to Make a Dent In The Hip-Hop Universe Through His Songs

Todd Andrew is a newcomer hip-hop artist. Harnessing his versatility and deep understanding of music, the artist has given his best in every song he has composed so far.

Sydney, Jul 7, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Todd Andrew is a newcomer hip-hop artist who has made a decent fanbase through his amazing hip-hop performances. The newcomer rapper released three brilliant tracks this year only. All his tracks are loved and admired by hip-hop fans across the world. His creativity in hip-hop music is greatly inspired by 90s hip-hop, R&B, and Soul music. The artist has given his best in every song he has composed so far. The Newcastle-born rapper seems to have deep knowledge about hip-hop music, its rap, and beats. Harnessing his skills, he has composed songs like 'ChokeHold', 'Ride or Die', and 'Letting Go'.

His song 'ChokeHold' has a groovy voice that sounds cool and catchy. The way he has maneuvered the track is impressive and leaves a deep impression in the minds of the listeners. The rising and dropping energy has made the song even thrilling, accompanying immersive electronic instrumental arrangements in the background. 'Ride or Die' is another product that emerged out of his creative mind. The song, in the beginning, gives a pure organic instrumental vibe. Soon it gets into the range of swimmy and psychedelic beats. The charm of his voice has played a major role in this track too.

'Letting Go' is quite different from the kind of music he has given. It is more like a melody than a rap. For this song, the artist has collaborated with another versatile singer MIM.
