About Song of the Nile: A passionate, slow-burning romance that will have you wanting to move to the continent for an old-fashioned holiday romance of pure escapism. Luxor, 1946. When young nurse Aida El Masri returns from war-torn London to her family's estate in Egypt, she steels herself against the challenges ahead. Eight years have passed since her father, Ayoub, was framed for a crime he did not commit and died as a tragic result. Yet Aida has not forgotten, and now she wants revenge against the man she believes betrayed her father – his best friend, Kamel Pharaony.

Then Aida is reunited with Kamel's son, the captivating surgeon Phares, who offers her marriage. In spite of herself, the secret passion Aida harboured for him as a young girl reignites. Still, how can she marry the son of the man who destroyed her father and brought shame on her family? Will coming home brings her love, or only danger and heartache? Set in the exotic and bygone world of Upper Egypt, Song of the Nile follows Aida's journey of rediscovery – of the homeland she loves, with its white-sailed feluccas on the Nile, old-world charms of Cairo, and the ancient secrets of its burning desert sands – and of the man, she has never forgotten.

About Hannah Fielding: Having already had huge success as one of the UK's leading romance authors with total sales of over 130k Song of the Nile, follows the award-winning success of Hannah Fielding's previous novels Aphrodite's Tears, Burning Embers, Concerto, Echoes of Love, Masquerade, Legacy, and Indiscretion. Echoes of Love won Romance Novel of the Year at the IPB Awards in 2012, Burning Embers were Amazon's book of the month in 2011, and Hannah's novels have been translated into 13 languages.
