

Aphrodite Marble & Stone Kitchen Countertops are One-of-a-Kind Creations

Lacey, New Jersey Aug 29, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Aphrodite Marble & Granite Co. understands the many facets of stone in a way that few can compare. Owned by Spyro Katsianis, the second-generation family-owned business began with the importation of stone from the family's home country of Greece.

Aphrodite Marble & Granite Co. provides natural and engineered stone for countertops in bathrooms, kitchens, and bars, along with backsplashes, and wall and floor tiles. The company can accommodate a wide variety of specialized applications.

Many people are seeking to create their dream kitchen and that can mean a variety of things to different people. One item that remains a constant is the desire for stone kitchen countertops Manahawkin, with marble and granite being the favorite options. Aphrodite Marble has a wide variety of materials from which to choose to accommodate any budget.

One of the reasons natural stone is so popular for kitchen countertops is its durability and longevity. Stone can last for 100 years or more when maintained appropriately and is a sound generational investment. Stone is naturally resistant to bacteria, fungi, and viruses. Those qualities make it easy to maintain and clean.

Kitchen countertops Wall N.J. are also an environmentally-friendly choice. Stone can be completely recycled and repurposed for other uses. Products that are crafted from recycled stone significantly reduce the natural resources used and the impact on the environment. Modern quarrying methods are more eco-friendly.

Those that choose stone for their kitchen countertops Toms River can rest assured that they have a unique, one-of-a-kind feature. The patterns and colors of each piece of stone are due to environmental forces and minerals that were formed in conjunction with the stone.

Aphrodite Marble & Granite Co. are stone masters in the highest sense of the word. They provide custom stone kitchen countertops from multiple types of stone, ensuring every individual can create their own vision of their dream kitchen.
