

Boxing's Newest Star Abel Mendoza's Homecoming

Making his Homecoming September 24 in Midland, Texas for His 35th Pro Fight!

Los Angeles, California Aug 29, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Boxing Sensation Abel Mendoza is making his homecoming on September 24th in Midland, Tx. Mendoza says he's thrilled to be fighting in his hometown after an inactive year. Mendoza has been on several cards this year but due to issues has not been able to add another win to his 34-0 with 27 KO, a perfect record for the Super-Featherweight. Mendoza is looking ahead to his homecoming. "I plan on going all out for my hometown". Mendoza's last four wins all ended within four rounds and all my KO and TKO. Mendoza has maintained to stay a free agent even though several companies have shown interest. Mendoza said, "I'm not against working with anyone. I'm just looking for the perfect fit". Mendoza in his six years of being a professional boxer has continuously stepped up the caliber of opponents in every fight. "I want to move back down to Featherweight. I believe we can make some big fights there". Mendoza is looking to fight for a WBA Regional Belt by the end of the year which would leave him in a great place in the rankings.

Becoming a world champion is not easy and Mendoza has shown that he has what it takes. Fighting six fights in 2021, five fights in 2020, and eight fights in 2019. He started his boxing career when he was 8 years old. Mendoza had nearly 300 amateur fights. He has the experience and pedigree to take any huge fight. What Mendoza has managed to do without a promoter most fighters with a promoter do not get to accomplish.

Mendoza is a boxer to watch for in 2023.
