

Catherine Nwora, APRN, FNP-BC, PMHNP-BC, a Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner with Mercie Health

Get to know Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner, Catherine Nwora, who serves patients in Richmond, Texas.

New York City, New York Aug 17, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Catherine is a board-certified psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner currently in practice at Mercie Health in Richmond, Texas. She works with patients across a lifespan, helping them through every step of the way with their mental health needs and goals.

Each step that she took played a vital role in her nursing experience. Through her journey to become a nurse practitioner, she found strength and support in those around her, inspiring her to continue forward. After completing her Associate's Degree in Nursing from Arkansas Northeastern College, she started working in intensive care units and became motivated to pursue emergency room and psychiatric mental health nursing. She then went on to complete her Master of Science in Nursing degrees in Family Practice and Psychiatric-Mental Health Nursing from The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston in 2019 and 2021, respectively.

As a testament to her success, Catherine holds two board certifications, including family practice and psychiatric mental health nursing, through the American Nurse Credentialing Center. She is also an active member of several professional organizations, including the American Nurses Association, the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, as well as the American Psychiatric Nurses Association.

When she's not helping patients, she enjoys swimming, spending quality time with her family, going shopping, and having relaxing spa days with her friends.

A Board-Certified Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (PMHNP-BC) is an advanced practice nurse that holds board certification and seeks to improve mental health care and the overall health status of communities.
