Getting EMO listed on Digifinex was no easy road. Digifinex is a rapidly growing crypto exchange focusing on liquidity for tokens.

Digifinex entered CoinmarketCap's Top-50 in March 2022 with volume over 2 billion dollars and has since had continued success. Therefore, EMO had to evidence its technological and competitive advances in what is already a very saturated market.

Emocoin, the latest sensation in the crypto world, is a token that powers the Emopay ecosystem. The token also got listed on global exchanges such as Digifinex and Emocoin's own swap platform.

Digifinex users will be able to deposit their Emo Coins via TRC-20 blockchain beginning 11.00 hours IST on Tuesday, August 2nd. Trade and withdrawal of Emo opened on August 3rd, 2022.

The Emo ecosystem is a community consisting of Multiple Utilities and EMOSwap. Besides crypto trading, Emocoin leverages its knowledge in Sales at pre-sale and crowd-sale stages. It also provides innovative pricing, regulations, and compliance to make digital assets accessible to retail and sophisticated institutional market participants.

Emocoin ecosystem will allow users to have access to countless products and services that an individual requires for daily living including Crypto Wallets, Currency Swap, Web Browser, Exchange, Staking, Loans, Payment Gateways, Retails, Entertainment for vending machines, Shops and Web Shops.

Currently, Emocoin is a TRC20 token using the TRON Blockchain. EMO is going to introduce its blockchain in 2023 secured by Tender mint Byzantine Fault tolerant (BFT) Consensus Mechanism.

Marketing Head of Emo DAO, Sachin Sharma said, "We have been working nonstop across the world to educate and inform just how transformative Emocoin and its technology can be. The Digifinex listing of Emo demonstrates every growing trajectory the digital assets are going in. This is especially true when it comes to exploring the possibilities and solutions that blockchain technology can provide to businesses, governments, and countries."

With the Emo project soon, the Emocoin community, as well as supporters around the world, will soon have the further promotion of the enterprise functionalities and real-world use cases of the project.

Digifinex crypto exchange launched trading in EmoCoin (EMO) on its platform, Digifinex is the world's Top 10 crypto exchange by trading volume and liquidity, offering spot, leverage, perpetual swap trading, and fiat to crypto trading.
