Get to know Neurologist Dr. John Collins, who serves patients in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

New York City, New York Aug 30, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Collins is a board-certified neurologist with 20+ years of experience in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the nervous system (the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles). He has a special interest in headaches, epilepsy, traumatic brain injury, neurodegenerative disorders, and all things neurologic.

At present, he owns and operates NeuroCenter Associates, an independent neurology clinic in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Optimizing quality of life, the practice provides neurological diagnostic, treatment, and rehabilitative services to patients in Northeast Indiana.

“If you genuinely speak to your patient about their complaints and ask the right questions, they will eventually tell you exactly what is wrong with them.’ From Dr. Roger Rosenberg, MD at UT Southwestern who is the most phenomenal and inspiring neurologist and teacher I have had the courtesy to know” expressed Dr. Collins.

Licensed to practice medicine in Indiana, North Carolina, Ohio, and Michigan, he is affiliated with the following hospitals and medical centers: Summa Akron City Hospital, University of Toledo Main Campus Medical Center, Dupont Hospital, St. Joseph Hospital, Indiana University Health Ball Memorial Hospital, Mercy Health - St. Rita’s Medical Center, Mercy Health - Fairfield Hospital, Mercy Health - Anderson Hospital, Mercy Health - St. Anne Hospital, Mercy Health - St. Vincent Medical Center, Mercy Health - St. Charles Hospital, and Mercy Health - St. Elizabeth Youngstown Hospital.

Graduating with the class of 1993 from the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, Dr. Collins went on to perform his internship in internal medicine at Sinai Hospital of Baltimore from 1993 until 1994. He then furthered his training with a residency in neurology at the University of Maryland School of Medicine from 1994 until 1997.

After his education, the doctor attained board certification in neurology through the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN). The ABPN is a not-for-profit corporation dedicated to serving the professions of psychiatry and neurology.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. Neurologists are licensed medical specialists who diagnose and treat disorders that affect the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles of patients. They examine a patient’s mental and physical status, conduct medical tests and scans, and evaluate the results to diagnose and treat the patient.
