

Mike Benc appreciated Jahfus saying he “sounds better than most of the songs”

Vancouver, British Columbia Aug 26, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Versatile and talented house music artist, Mike Benc has complimented his friend Jahfus saying that his craft sounds better than most of the songs these days played on the Radio. It is quite agreeable as the hit track ‘SHUT IT ALL DOWN’ by Jahfus featuring Ray J is gaining much attention even today. This Billboard hit surfaced in 2008 and it was later on removed from YouTube. However, after 14 long years, the artist made an epic comeback in the industry by re-uploading the chartbuster again. Offering the essence of disco-pop, hip-hop, and upbeat pop; this track is quite enjoyable for everyone. Previously, the track gained more than 20 million views on YouTube. With the re-upload after these years, the view count can go even higher.

Through all these years Jahfus did not drop any new musical project. However, the artist joined forces for a live performance in Burnaby, British Columbia this summer. The Canadian audiences at the ‘Safe & Sound’ festival were quite delighted to hear this artist after a long halt. The artist is all set to revive his musical journey again and talented music producers like Mike Benc are helping him to pave his way in the industry again. Mike believes his friend Jahfus is able to create amazing tracks which are original, authentic, and driven by passion. It is the sole reason why a track is so relevant and enjoyable even after 14 years of its release. Currently, this artist is gaining at full throttle to drop more musical projects that portray his talent, skills, and creative persona.

Recently, Jahfus has dropped two new bangers which are buzzing through his fans and followers. 'EVERYTHING NICE' is among those two tracks that were released nearly a month ago and offer an invigorating essence through its witty wordplay and eclectic deliverance. Accompanying music videos depicted the unwavering persona of the artist. Naturally raspy vocal essence along with strong bars does not fail to captivate the listeners. Mike Benc believes Jahfus is not only a talented music artist but someone who has the caliber to become a star. Some of the collaboration projects by Jahfus also include celebrities like Ne-Yo, Tyrese Gibson, and many others. Follow him on Instagram and YouTube to find out more.
