Pathology is a branch of medical science that involves the study and diagnosis of disease through the examination of surgically removed organs, tissues, bodily fluids, and in some cases, the whole body. Pathologists are physicians who specialize in the diagnosis and management and can help your primary care doctor make a diagnosis about your medical condition. Dr. Choudhury may perform a tissue biopsy to determine if a patient has cancer, practice genetic testing, and complete a number of laboratory examinations. Pathologists can also perform autopsies which can determine a person's cause of death and gain information about the genetic progression of a disease. They are also in charge of blood banking and complications related to blood products. Molecular and genetic testing for rare and familial diseases are also evaluated by Pathologists.
