

National Institute of Language Starts NIL Overseas For Abroad Studies

NIL Edutech Private Limited, parent company of National Institute of Language starting NIL Overseas to facilitate consultation and admission process of over 4000 International Universities.

Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Aug 28, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - National Institute of Language a unit of NIL Edutech Private Limited has garnered a tremendous amount of accolades in the last few years. After a successful run with Communication Training, Foreign Language Training in French, Spanish &

German, IELTS, and TOEFL preparation now NIL Edutech has launched a new brand NIL Overseas, which is going to help students take admissions to top universities across the world.

Mr. Chandan Srivastava (Head of the Training Team), National Institute of Language has trained more than 60000 students in the last 18 months and got overwhelmingly positive feedback. The website has received a record of 1.5 million visits in the last 3 months from students looking to get Soft Skills & Communication Training, IELTS, and Foreign Languages Preparation as well. In the post-pandemic era, the focus and trust in Online Platforms have increased dramatically wherein students need quality training in order to justify this growth. The National Institute of Language has addressed this issue with an immense focus on education research and content development.

NIL Overseas, the new venture of NIL Edutech has already developed associations with more than 4000 international universities around the world with more than 12000-course options ranging from short-term certificate programs to long-term degree programs. International Education has always been a fascinating idea and NIL Overseas expects to consult at least 20000 students for their education in the next financial year. The best part of the deal that might intrigue most students is that most of these services come with absolutely no charge from the students. NIL Overseas is also going to offer Post-Landing Services in association with Save Max Eternity, Canada for services like Airport pick and drop, accommodation arrangement, part-time job assistance, etc., however, these services are not free and the charges will depend on multiple service tiers. Having said that, it is still going to help the students immensely in a foreign land.

At the time of writing this article, NIL overseas has already started operations and consulting students for their study abroad dreams. Mr. Kamalpreet Singh, Head of the study abroad department has maintained that “At NIL we believe in quality and transparency in every step. The student is looking for a brighter future and we are committed to providing excellence in everything we do. It starts with IELTS training and goes on to filling out applications and arranging for visas. We will take care of every major and minor part of the process with full competence.”
