Get to know Pain Management Specialist Dr. Rany Abdallah, who serves patients throughout the State of Delaware.

New York City, New York Aug 8, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A seasoned pain management specialist, Dr. Abdallah is the President of APICO Pain Management, serving patients in the Bear, Dover, and Millsboro areas. He strongly believes that every patient should be treated like a family member. He offers expertise in the treatment of headaches, back and neck pain, cancer pain, abdominal pain, chronic post-surgical pain, fibromyalgia, industrial and accidental injuries, complex regional pain syndrome, and other complex pain syndromes.

Furthermore, he tackles pain treatment in a multimodal fashion by coordinating pharmacotherapy, interventional therapy, physical therapy, chiropractic therapy, and psychotherapy. His interventional treatments span from simple spine injections to cutting-edge therapies and implantable devices.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, Dr. Abdallah earned his medical degree and Doctor of Philosophy degree (Ph.D.) at the Medical University of South Carolina. He then went on to complete his residency in anesthesiology at Rush University in Chicago, and his fellowship in pain medicine at the University of Pittsburgh, where he served as Chief Fellow.

Board-certified in pain medicine and anesthesiology by the American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA), he served as faculty at Temple University Health and Chief of the Interventional Pain Division at the University of Vermont Health before transitioning to private practice.

Along with his clinical role, Dr. Abdallah is actively involved and serves as teaching faculty in the American Society of Regional Anesthesia and Pain Medicine, the North American Neuromodulation Society, the International Neuromodulation Society, and the World Academy of Pain Medicine United, among others.

Pain management is a branch of medicine employing an interdisciplinary approach for easing suffering and improving the quality of life of those living with chronic pain. A pain management specialist is a doctor who specializes in pain medicine, focusing on the evaluation, treatment, and prevention of pain.

In his free time, Dr. Abdallah likes to travel. He is fluent in English, Arabic, French, and Spanish.
