Pointe-Claire, Quebec Aug 10, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Americans are saving money on prescription meds by ordering their prescriptions online from Canada. In the United States, medicine prices have skyrocketed and are unaffordable for many USA customers, and out of reach for those who cannot afford them. Americans save 50-90% on name-brand medications by personally importing pharmaceutical drugs from online Canadian pharmacies. Personal drug importation resulted in Americans saving an average of $3,744 in savings in 2021, or $312 per month compared to U.S. pharmaceutical costs.

Canadian Online Pharmacy Rx Drugs Canada provides an extensive selection of prescription medications at incredibly affordable prices for customers in the United States. Rx Drugs Canada is a licensed online pharmacy for affordably priced medication with savings up to 90%. A reputable online Canadian pharmacy that only dispenses medication from its accredited international pharmacy partners and is 100% reliable. Many Americans require medication throughout the year. The Rx Drugs Canada platform is a lifesaver for those people who need their medication regularly and can save them tens of thousands of dollars per year.

By virtue of living in the United States, you pay more for your medications than you would if you lived anywhere else in the world. The average American spends \$1,220 on prescription drugs every year.

The feds say it's likely to get worse with medical prices going up faster than the prices for other commodities.

The U.S. is one of only two countries where manufacturers can legally advertise their drugs, which has increased demand. Other countries also have regulators who put caps on the cost.

U.S. drug prices are so much higher that it's led to a new industry: pharmacy tourism. Some Americans have found they can save money by buying a plane ticket and flying hundreds of miles to Canada or another country to pick up their prescriptions rather than running to the pharmacy down the street.

Rx Drugs Canada are leaders in the Pharmacy industry in Canada and its goal is to make prescription medications accessible to all North Americans at affordable prices. Their model covers all aspects of prescription fulfillment through their online portal, including prescription delivery, old chain packaging for diabetes and insulin medications, as well as any required prescription medications shipped directly to your door.

More and more Americans have learned they can save up to 90% on their prescription drugs by ordering online from Rx Drugs Canada instead of making a trip overseas. The fact that the U.S. Dollar is about 32% stronger than the Canadian Dollar also helps offset the cost for American consumers.

One hiccup to all of this is that it's illegal to import medications into the United States. According to the FDA, "any drugs, including foreign-made versions of U.S. approved drugs" can be seized at the border.

It's a law that is largely unenforced, especially if an American is importing a less-than-90-day supply of personal medication. Americans have been looking for solutions to save money on their prescriptions, and importing drugs from Canada for 90-days at a time may be the solution to high prescription costs.

In 2018, the Trump Administration recognized Canada as having comparable food and drug safety systems to the US.

Many Americans now shop online for discounted drugs at Rx Drugs Canada. Buying your medication from Canadian Online Pharmacy to dispense medicine doesn't necessarily require a trip to Canada, but it does require a prescription from a doctor licensed in the state you reside.
