New Delhi, Delhi Sep 8, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Question: What is Tetherum and What is the Idea Behind it?

Answer: T99 is the Native Token for Tetherum Exchange which also gives holders power to govern the Tetherum project. Tetherum DEX is a decentralized exchange with Automated Market Maker, native to Binance Smart Chain. It shares some similar Tools to established platforms SushiSwap or Pancakeswap, using which users can swap their coins for other coins without the input of any middleman Service provider. The main feature of Tetherum Is that it focuses on BEP20 tokens – a specific token standard developed by Binance.

Question: What Inspired Kiyoshi Nakamoto to create a platform like Tetherum and what makes it Different?

Answer: Kiyoshi Nakamoto wants to make Crypto trading faster and easier for middle-class people, they want to make a barcode scanning payment system network for global transactions.

Question: What is the Future of This Project, Will we Stop at 50x, or Have we Just Started?

Answer: TETHEREUM is developing its own Cryptocurrency Exchange with more than 350 payment modes globally for P2P Trading.

TETHEREUM founder's moto is to make Cryptocurrency trading easy and simple for the lower- and middle-class people.

TETHEREUM was founded by Indian-Origin Entrepreneurs, Deepika Chandela, Ujjwal Ashiwal, and Rahul Verma, along with web3 financier Kiyoshi Nakamoto, in June 2021, this year TETHEREUM is planning to launch on many other Exchanges globally.

Speaking to the FOUNDER & CEO of TETHEREUM, Deepika Chandela said that we have a long and futuristic vision for TETHEREUM, will be listed globally very soon, and we are working hard on technology development, sales, and marketing.

“We have currently 36 employees, out of which 9 are developers, mostly deployed in the Dubai office. We plan to increase the headcount from the existing 36 to 100, most of the employees we want to bring in are going to be senior executives who can help us get adopted by the people and governments. So, we're going to target corporates or retired people from government to come on board and help us,” she added.

TETHEREUM is listed on CoinStore & Pancakeswap

TETHEREUM EXCHANGE is planned to go live in December, this year.
