Homestead Air Reserve Park will host the highly anticipated Inaugural Lupus and Cancer Awareness Music Festival and Walk, a family-friendly event full of music, food, and fun, presented by Strong Fathers Inc and Redd Nose Promotions. On Saturday November 5th, 2022, fans will experience a dynamic and diverse musical event featuring some of the world's top artists and homegrown superstars.

Taking center stage is the chart-topping platinum selling artist K Michelle along with the soulful award-winning sounds of Lyfe Jennings. Miami's own superstar artists Trina and Ball Greezy along with rising star artist Mike Smiff and the legendary Angie Griffin will also be showcasing their vast collection of hits on stage and many others.

The Lupus and Cancer Awareness Music Festival will be preceded with an awareness walk-a-thon and an opportunity for a myriad of multi-cultural cuisines and allowing an array of local vendors to provide a marketplace that directly pours back into the local area.

Tickets will be available Wednesday, August 3, 2022, at 10:00 AM EST via Eventbrite at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/lc-walk-tickets-378359612787>.
