Charles Town, West Virginia Aug 4, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The Books Motivate Foundation's 2022 National Climate Essay Student Competition invited students around the country to write a climate science essay by May 2022, with a chance to win an entry in a 2022 climate essay book publication. The grand finalist climate essay winner will also be awarded $5,000.00 during the 2022 Reception of Champions Climate Awards event.

The twenty-three 2022 climate student finalist essayists with bonus essays from previous winners are featured in the new book, Climate Connection: American Student Voices available for pre-order on Amazon via the URL here.

The 2022 National Climate Essayist will be announced during the 2022 Reception of Champions Climate event to read the award-winning essay to the audience. The virtual event will feature guest panelists Chris Bugbee, Ecologist, and John Cancalosi, Field Biologist Photographer. The discussion will be moderated by Books Motivate Foundation Executive Director Pamela Ellis, Ph.D.

The 2022 Reception of Champions Climate Award event is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 20 from 2 p.m.- 4:00 p.m. Eastern. Additional awardees include the 2022 National Climate Teacher, 2022 Books Motivate Volunteer, and 2022 Books Motivate Community Service awards. Students, educators, and community members who want to know more and lead on climate sustainability issues in their region and elsewhere are invited. For virtual event tickets, and/or to donate or sponsor the climate essay program and event, contact Books Motivate Foundation at www.booksmotivate.org or email, info@booksmotivate.org.
