Get to know Pediatrician Dr. Barbara A. Bernstein, who serves patients in Moorestown, New Jersey.

New York City, New York Sep 28, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A highly trained pediatrician, Dr. Bernstein is an attending physician at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) Primary Care, Moorestown.

CHOP Primary Care, Moorestown, provides high-quality primary care for children from birth through age 21. Their experienced, board-certified pediatricians and advanced practice nurses provide a variety of resources for families, including same-day sick appointments and breastfeeding support. Their practice is growing — they schedule approximately 12,500 patient visits a year — but they are committed to maintaining a close relationship with every family they see.

Back in 1987, Dr. Bernstein earned her medical degree from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey - Rutgers Medical School. She then completed her residency in pediatrics at Cooper Hospital University Medical Center in 1990.

A member of the American Academy of Pediatrics, she is board-certified in pediatrics by the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

In her local area, Dr. Bernstein has hospital privileges at Virtua Memorial Hospital and Virtua Voorhees Hospital.

Pediatrics is the branch of medicine that involves the medical care of infants, children, and adolescents. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends individuals be under pediatric care up to the age of 21. Pediatricians provide medical care to people ranging in age from newborns to young adults. They are trained to examine, diagnose, and treat children with a wide variety of injuries and illnesses through all of their developmental stages, as they grow and mature.
