London, United Kingdom Sep 18, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - FD Capital Welcomes Minesh Parmar as Chief Executive

FD Capital continues the next phase of its global expansion by welcoming Minesh Parmar as Chief Executive. Mr. Parmar has previously served as a Non-Executive Board Member of FD Capital since 2020 before stepping up to the role of Chief Executive.

Mr. Parmar is the latest addition to FD Capital's senior leadership team, alongside Abby Langstaff, who joins as Managing Partner. Their global experience will enable FD Capital's expansion as it recruits for an increasing number of remote working opportunities with companies based in the UK and beyond.

The niche recruitment agency has made a name for itself with its talent pool of part-time, full-time, and interim financial executives with experience working with PE houses and within the technology industry.

Mr. Parmar has an extensive portfolio of experience within the financial recruitment industry. He has recently launched, Reporting Accounts as a business credit report tool for businesses.

His CV focuses primarily on working within the UK as a Managing Consultant at Michael Page and a Senior Recruitment Consultant at Robert Half.

Mr. Parmar has also held a senior position in the Middle East, he is bringing his commercial awareness and focus on client relationship management to FD Capital.

The addition of Mr. Parmar to the company's c-suite leadership team will enable FD Capital to expand its presence in the Midlands as the leading financial recruitment agency for CFOs, FDs, and financial executives.

Currently based in the UAE, Mr. Parmar will work alongside the company's leadership team to turbo-charge its global expansion as it begins to work with clients outside the UK.

Adrian Lawrence, Director of FD Capital, welcomes Minesh Parmar to the company's leadership team and thanks him for his service as a Non-Executive Board Member.
