

Jasonhaze released his first Latin R&B EP "Lucylle"

Baja California, Mexico Sep 9, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Jasonhaze premieres "Lucylle" His new EP, which has 4 Latin trap / R&B songs, an EP on which he worked for 5 months to ensure that each song lived up to what is currently heard. In it you can see influences from artists such as Ozuna, Feid and Anuel AA, maintaining the essence of the Mexican artist.

"Quiero tu Calor" was chosen as the main theme since it has a dark and sensual sound that surrounds you from second 1 with the atmosphere it generates, In the words of the artist, the bass had and some instruments had to be replaced up to 4 times. Finally a classic 808 bass and some modern arrangements were chosen, it is not surprising that it had such a good acceptance on platforms like Pandora and Spotify.

During these 5 months of work, we wanted each song to sound different from one another, to prevent the EP from being monotonous or seem repetitive, but without leaving the main idea or concept, which is the Longing, seen from different perspectives.

We are very happy with the result of this project. Lejhan, Elian G4 and Dosefek, who were in charge of the production of the EP, kindly invite you all to give us a try with this song.

You can also follow the artist so you don't miss any updates on their social networks like Instagram.
