Los Angeles, California Sep 30, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Los Angeles, California- Supporting and Empowering the Domestic Violence Victims.

DATE- Invisible Flags is an award-winning film starring Meitar Paz in a lead role drawing attention to a pervasive issue often not regarded as one-Domestic Violence. The film will premiere on October 3rd, 2022, at Raleigh Studios in Hollywood to spread awareness about Domestic Violence as a part of the National Domestic Violence Awareness Month campaign.

The film is an eye opener for many as it addresses the invisible red flags in a relationship that are likely to go unnoticed or are often brushed under the sympathy gaining apologies and promises that it won't happen again. With the survivors of Domestic Violence on board, the cast and crew of the film manage to connect with the audience on a much personal level. Meitar Paz, who is also the director and writer of the film, outshines with her brilliant performance and has been awarded the Best Actress in the Lead category. The filmmakers hope to effectively contribute to the movement of Domestic Violence awareness through Invisible Flags. They shared:

'We would like to invite everyone to the premier of Invisible Flags which addresses the issue of Domestic Violence. We have put in years of hard work and survived the Covid-19 recession to bring this must-watch film to our viewers. It may not be the usual commercial blockbuster but it speaks for so many gone unheard, so many still silently suffering behind the walls. Domestic Violence is an issue on a much wider scale and doesn't limit to physical Violence against a partner. Come join us and play a part in spreading awareness during National Domestic Violence Month.'

The lead actress, Meitar Paz, has been previously featured in many films and television shows. The award-winning actress, writer, producer and director is popularly known for her role in 'Full moon' and 'Black Spiderman.' She has also been part of the famous projects Below, 'First String 2,' and 'Miranda Victim.' When asked about her passion for films, she said:

'We actors and filmmakers carry paramount responsibility of telling the stories that matter. We have the leverage of being able to connect with the masses and I am happy to be contributing in whichever way possible. Through Invisible Flags, we have tried to bring positive change and we have started by being the change. I am up close and personally connected with projects which enlighten and inspire. I have a passion for film and theatre which drives me to create art that speaks to the human condition. Mark the date, October 3rd, 2022!'

The premier night will be hosted by none other than Ayelet Zurer, known for her impressive acting in 'Munich,' 'Daredevil,' and 'Man of Steel.' The night's special guest includes the renowned American stage actor and the 'Flashdance' star, Michael Nouri, the American Horror Story Series star Andrew Duplessie and the producer of 'IT' Jon Silk, among many others, the names of which are not disclosed. The night will begin with a red-carpet screening followed by a Question/Answer session in which the audience will participate. Stories of Domestic Violence survivors will also be shared. Influencers and social media personalities will speak about the importance of spreading Domestic Violence awareness. The audience will be invited to share their point of view and offer any productive and creative input that would help deal with the unacceptable Domestic Violence crime.

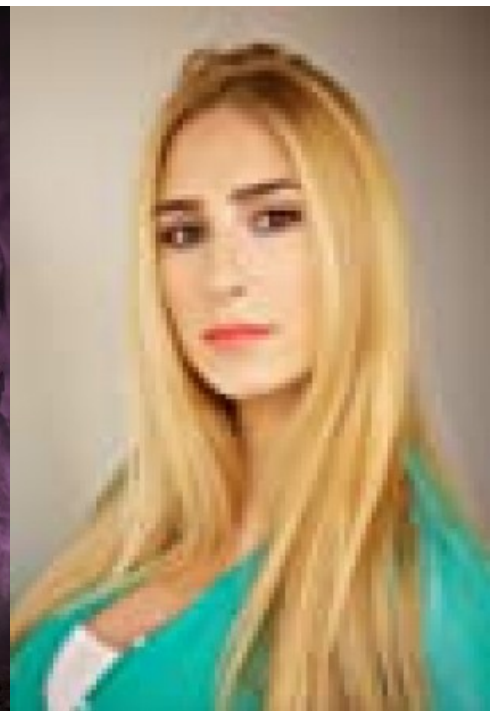

Invisible Flags, for its compelling story, brilliant acting, and direction, have received over 20 awards globally in Best Short, Best Drama, Best Social Justice Film, Best Lead Actress, Best Duo, Best Women Empowering, and Best Ensemble. The film also stars Michael Bassano, Mia Sandler, Ayana Taylor, Rory Valdez Susan Lavelle, and Carley Harper in pivotal roles.

This film was produced by MMM Production.
