Dover, Delaware Sep 8, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Believing in God and Jesus Christ has always been a topic of discussion but those people who are religious can definitely benefit from a guide. Keeping this in mind, auspicious author Nakia Trader has released a book titled 'What Do I Do Now? Building a Solid Christian Foundation'. The aim of writing this book is to guide Christians to lead a life following Jesus Christ and His teachings. This book has content that answers the existing Christians along with new Christians often have a question about which acts as the perfect spiritual guidance that the audience needs.

The title of the book is self-explanatory, people who have started their journeys on the path of Christianity and Jesus Christ often have the question and worry about what would be the best next step. Being a child of God requires patience and a lot of strength where there will be barriers in every step, in this very situation the book 'What Do I Do Now? Building a Solid Christian Foundation' will be the ultimate help that will make you clear the foundations of the fundamentals of Christianity.

The fundamentals of Christianity believe in and teach that we are all sinners because somehow we have all disobeyed God in some ways but receive forgiveness for the sins through our faiths In God and Jesus Christ. Sharing this message in the process of living life with Christianity is essential as Jesus Christ commissioned and preached, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15) to us. Reading this book may not answer all of the reader's questions and it is very likely to have more questions as the audience read this book but it stays true to its purpose, which is giving foundations to the fundamentals that are used in living a Christian life.

Born and brought up in Dover, Delaware, the author Nakia Trader has shown the talent of being a writer since the age of 11. She has taken immense inspiration from her journeys to various states across the country and international states that she has made doing missionary work which involved assisting several individuals in growing closer to God and Jesus Christ's principles.
