Mumbai, Maharashtra Sep 19, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Talk To Ionic: A wave of change is probably needed in a world moving towards digital. Everyone is fulfilling all the professionalism to set up and grow the online business. In such a situation, how can anyone forget SEO when it is talking about attracting the client? As everyone knows, SEO is an important part of digital marketing, in which the client can reach the target goal by searching the keywords on the search engine. But is SEO easy? This answer is complicated.

Although there are countless articles and tutorials available on Google related to them, it is a bit difficult to find direct answers. Similarly, two well-known experts in the industry, who have done many experiments on SEO, have done so much research. The whole world is aware of his name and work, and everyone salutes his expertise. One of them is Neil Patel and the other is Kishanu Karmakar, who has gained fame as a successful entrepreneur and digital business marketer.

Often on forums and public posts, vital questions related to SEO are asked by beginners. Kishanu Karmakar is known for his skills, expertise, and research in India for the passionate digital entrepreneur. And on the other hand, Neil Patel, whose SEO tutorial gives a new direction to the enterprise. By the way, both of them have emerged as not only promising but also inspiring personalities in their field and work.

Many articles by Kishanu and Neil appear on the first page when people search for SEO marketing in the search engine. It is a matter of fact that apart from brands and businesses, the work of both is also appreciated by big tech companies like IBM, Google, and Microsoft. Kishanu Karmakar has developed a strong presence in India, handling big brands and businesses through many of his companies (SNK Creation, 24 News-Times, Social Astrologer, SNK Social Fame). And when it comes to the depth of SEO terms, then Neil Patel's name is supreme.
