Nick Maslii

DIGITAL MARKETING STRATEGIST

Saint Petersburg, Florida Sep 1, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The webinar will discuss real-case digital marketing mistakes in online business promotion which may happen at any stage of interaction with a client.

The interactive webinar format will allow guests to vote on the most pressing questions about all online promotion channels and receive expert views on relevant matters.

Those who are interested in digital marketing and startup owners can register for the free webinar here.

The speaker, Nick Maslii, is a Digital Marketing Strategist with more than four years of expertise in assisting businesses in identifying and implementing the most efficient digital marketing strategies for strong online presence and high ROI. Among his clients is the renowned Premium Sound.

The topics that will be covered during the webinar include:

- Digital marketing blunders can hinder a business from reaching its desired growth
- A fresh look at the ordinary digital marketing routine and insights for online improvements
- The whole flow of launching a digital marketing campaign—from preparation to execution—with great emphasis on the details

Moreover, prizes will be drawn among the guests of the webinar. Among them are one free business marketing channel audit (regular cost: $2200) and three consultations with the speaker.
