STATEMENT FROM THE ARTIST:

Dear God (or to whom it may concern),

Please free us from our expectations, archaic masculine roles, attributes, and behaviors constructed by history, society, and politics. Rid our world of toxic masculinity and replace it with a new way of being — a way of love, tolerance, sensitivity, and compassion as we transition away from the patriarchy and into gender equality. Grant us strength as we unlearn and welcome these new ideologies so we can evolve together in peace and harmony. Grant us courage as we overthrow the antiquated powers that be and bear witness to when the cowboys cry. “I am not my father”, yet a piece of him remains within me, which I try to improve daily. So I am my father, albeit a mere reflection of him, but that's not all I am. I am also my mother, my sister, my brother, my partner, and my friend. She, her, he, him, they, them.

Amen
