Particulars of the German language course: Curriculum

-The course curriculum is vast and aligned with the German language proficiency Exams like DSH, the TestDaf, and The Goethe Institut Exam. The course has all the six levels namely Beginners Level A 1 & A2, Intermediate Levels B1 & B2, and Advanced Levels C1 & C2. This curriculum is sculpted by our team of veterans from the domain who left no stone unturned to put forth the best that this course can offer. Additionally, there are two modules on Soft skills development and Resume building to make the learner industry-ready.

Training

- The training duration for each level of the German Language course here is different i.e it is 56 hours for A1 & A2, and 66 hours for B1 to C2. We, at Henry Harvin, commission only qualified professionals as trainers who are chosen through a rigorous selection process to ensure unparalleled training for all the learners. Conjointly, we make sure that the technology that we employ to impart knowledge is in sync with the newest learning methods.

The 9-in1 package

-One of the most alluring attributes of the German language course that has received high praise is the 9-in-1 program. This simply means we have assimilated 9 takeaways from 1 single course. These attributes are Training, Gold membership, Projects, E-learning, Bootcamps, Hackathons, Certification, Internship, and Placement. Through this, we ensure the full professional upskilling of each learner.

-The 1 year Gold membership feature that we provide is for all the learners who enroll in the German Language course. They can avail of membership in the Henry Harvin Language Academy during which time, they can attend Bootcamps, Hackathons, Placement Drives, E-learning, videos, tools, and many more.

Career and Learning rewards

During the training period, our instructors make sure that each learner gets the maximum benefit from German language training.

The projects and assignments from time to time help the learner to achieve an in-depth grasp of the language, developing fluency at the same time. Each level inculcates speaking, listening, and writing skills which aid the learner in mastering the German language. On completion of the training, the learner can download the certificate in German language training from their LMS portal.

We have a superior team of mentors for the German Language course who guide each learner through the entire process of training and certification. The exposure that every learner gets from this course makes them unique in the domain.
