Stony Plain, Alberta Sep 14, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Kelly Falardeau is a single mom entrepreneur, burn survivor(who was called the ugly scar-faced girl in school), and 7x Best-Selling Author who is dedicated to helping other single parents succeed. Falardeau decided to divorce her husband 11 years ago when she realized she was in a toxic marriage that was headed for disaster.

Her husband told her she could only leave the marriage if she gave him the house and their three kids.

She was scared to leave her husband because she didn't want to live with the "broke single mom" stigma. Most times when we think of a single mom, we think she's broke. Falardeau didn't want to live that way. She decided to follow her passion and become a motivational speaker/author and share her passion for being a single mom entrepreneur.

She has been featured on TEDx twice, was named Fierce Woman of the Year, and has written six internationally best-selling books. In 2020, she was named one of the Most Inspirational People by Global TV and was nominated for Entrepreneur of the Year in 2022.

"Single moms don't have to be broke, they just have to be passionate, committed, and focused," says Falardeau.

Falardeau was nominated for the Entrepreneur of the Year 2022 award plus the People's Choice Award - Canada for her commitment to business and helping others to achieve their business goals and become Best-Selling Authors. She has a 100% success rate in getting authors to the best-selling list.
