Los Angeles, California Sep 24, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Starf*cker is a new film featuring the award-winning actor Erik Fellows in the lead role. Set in the world of the entertainment industry, the story revolves around the personal life of an acclaimed Hollywood actor unfolding the extreme opposite side of his eye candy life. It is currently streaming on Tubi and will soon be available for Amazon subscribers.

Erik Fellows has been previously part of Being Rose, Break Even, Texas Heart, Purgatory, Days of Our Lives, and The Bay. Known for his versatility and ability to completely mold into character and improvise effectively, Erik is playing a role of a narcissistic psychopath with ADD, BPD, and sex addiction. In a never seen avatar, the lead of the film Jimmy Starr, tries to sleep his way to the top of Hollywood, only to find his world crashing down around him in this dark comedy story.

The film opens with a struggling actor, Jimmy Starr, who is determined to make his way up the ladder of globally renowned Hollywood celebrities and does everything to earn fame and power. His dedication and hard work turn into an obsession, and he slowly indulges deep into the mess, starting at the bottom of the Z-list and working his way up via favors and one-night stands. Things take an exciting turn when his ex-fiancée and brother re-enter the picture and he is forced to navigate real life and discover if he is more than just a narcissistic psychopath.

'I enjoyed every second of Jimmy Starr in me. Erik and Jimmy are 180 degrees apart and that was probably the most intriguing factor when Mark brought the script to me. He was more confident than I was and in his head, he had visualized me playing Jimmy. I guess for an actor to be fully trusted by the director, I knew I had to take it up and I am extremely happy I did. The co-producing experience is a whole other story, it has been educational and inspirational for me. This was the first time I was truly a part of a film from beginning to end, from conception to completion and delivery. The process was insane and stressful at times. But in the end, it was extremely rewarding and fulfilling. My cast and crew gave everything they had to this project, and I'm excited to show the world what we came up with. I really hope people enjoy the one-of-a-kind film that director/creator/writer/producer Mark David has given us. I'm extremely grateful for this opportunity, and I'd like to thank Mr. Mark David for always believing in me and giving me this unique role to play.'—Lead actor Starf*cker Erik Fellows.

Written by Joshua A. Cohen, Chad Zhusik, and Mark David, who is also the director and producer, the film also stars Weston Cage and Blake Clark in pivotal roles along with James Ruso, Robert Miano, Mara Marini, Kacy Owens, Weston Cage, Caroline Macey, Johnny Dowers, Dusty Sorg, and Clement von Franckenstein in supportive roles. The film is co-produced by Erik Fellows and Chad Zhusik.

Starf*cker keeps the viewers hooked till the very last minute. An amalgamation of comedy, dark, and non-fiction genres, it effortlessly delivers a compelling, relatable story. The inclusion of subliminal messages is a cherry at the top for viewers. The film has received positive reviews and has been growing since its release. It is officially declared a hit by film critics. Mark David further shared:

'I along with my team had been trying really hard to bring something like this for the viewers. The pandemic has taken its worst toll on the entertainment industry and the audience has responded positively to cinema-going digital. We are hopeful that through Amazon, the film will reach a much wider audience. The response on Tubi is overwhelming and we are truly grateful. Watch the film and let us know what you think about it through our social media channels! We like to connect with our audience personally.'
