

Studio FYUL introduces a World Class Printing Studio in Delhi

Studio FYUL has launched a printing studio in Delhi for a delightful experience for the brands to check paper bags, soft boxes, rigid boxes, product labels and more.

New Delhi, Delhi Sep 24, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Studio FYUL, a printing retail company, unveils a world-class studio in the capital city to assist brands across India to comprehend the various types of printing techniques and papers with the help of samples. This now means easy and economical access to all kinds of customized commercial printing, along with complete guidance throughout the process.

Studio FYUL has on-board a well-trained team of workers highly specialized in providing the best printing solutions for all types of businesses and helping in choosing what's right for them. The business stationery and prints by Studio FYUL is everything that a brand requires to level up.

As the name suggests, FYUL is the fuel of a brand's printing communication that offers almost everything one can ask for in their business - paper bag printing, soft boxes & mono cartons printing, rigid box printing, sticker & label printing, takeaway box printing, customized beverage glass, customized stationery printing, and expert guidance of course.

Speaking about the studio launch, Mayank Jain, the CEO of Studio FYUL said, “We can help you (brands) sell better by working on your packaging and providing practical solutions that suit your needs. From colors, shapes, and prints, everything can be personalized according to the business requirements. We are not a printing press but your channel partners for your paper printing and packaging needs.”

Further, he added, “We believe that the industry yet does not see print as a powerful tool for communication and hence we want this revolution. Our prime focus is on developing a world-class ecosystem for Indian companies and empowering them with mighty prints.”

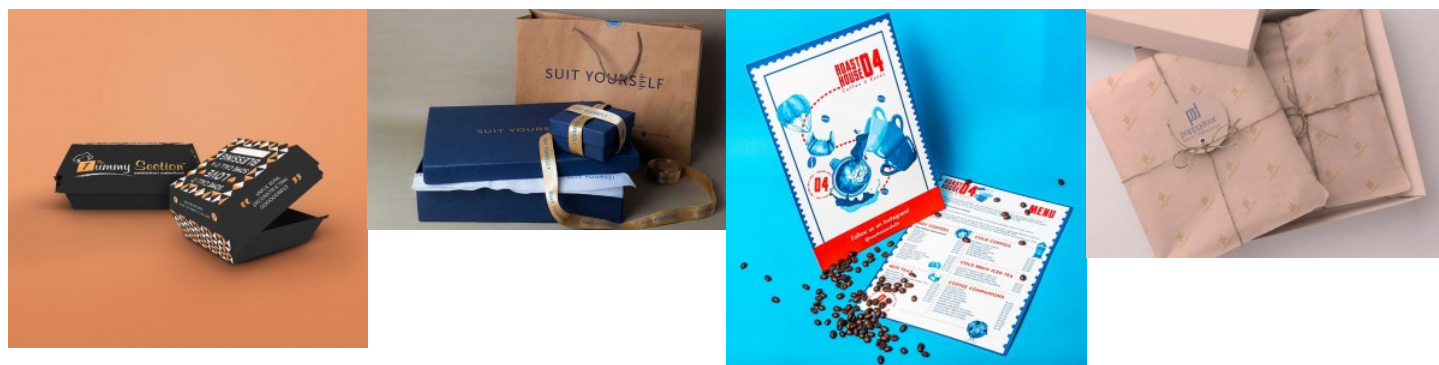

With 10+ years of industry experience, FYUL has a varied client base and boasts of some of the toughest designs. It is a one-stop solution for all brands looking out to strengthen their market position and stand out in this competitive business world.

Studio FYUL is based in Okhla Industrial Area, Delhi, and is now open to visitors.
