

The European Book Slam Introduces A New Show With A New Host – Wild Thoughts’ Love And Orgasms

Marietta, Georgia Sep 25, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - When fantasy novelist and publisher Jules L. Grant began hosting The European Book Slam on Clubhouse, she admits to seeing a wealth of opportunity within the popular online show. In less than six months at the helm, she encouraged show creator N. D. “Indy” Brennan to begin beta-testing a live stream video version. The live stream pilot was introduced on Thursday, September 1st with the month of September used for working out technical specifications. Now, the final test show will be live-streamed on YouTube, Facebook, and LinkedIn on Thursday at 3 PM (EST) or 8 PM (GMT) but with a unique twist. Mrs. Grant will be using her platform to introduce new shows and hosts to The Book Slam family beginning with Wild Thoughts’ Love and Orgasms.

Baltimore native turned Atlanta resident Nsenga Rivens is Wild Thoughts. She is an author and certified sexologist whose business is consulting groups of women on techniques for enhancing their perspective and performance for intimacy. She is described as the millennium’s version of Dr. Ruth. She was dubbed the name “Wild Thoughts” due to her unprecedented style of dialogue and openness. Jules L. Grant expressed “loving her to death because you never know what she will say.” The show Wild Thoughts’ Love and Orgasms is scheduled to launch on Clubhouse (audio-only) as well as live-streamed on YouTube, Facebook, and LinkedIn in October. This week on The European Book Slam Thursday, September 29th, Jules L. Grant will be introducing Wild Thoughts on her show, which The European Book Slam host expressed “is going to be hilarious!”

During a brief interview with Wild Thoughts, she described, “The sex topic is both taboo and provocative but it's, fortunately, a part of everyday life. Many women place a tremendous amount of pressure on themselves, which causes them to have a less than favorable experience at times where guys don't place enough. As a result, only 50 to 70 percent of women report having orgasms within a heterosexual relationship whereas 95 percent of men do. The 70 percent leans toward women within a committed relationship. The lower percentage tends to be women with casual partners. The reason for this disparity in achieving ultimate pleasure for women, in particular, has a lot to do with a lack of information and understanding of one's own body, ability, and openness to experiences. I help to broaden their thinking while expanding techniques for increasing that percentage. Unless you are physically incapable due to a medical condition or trauma, a woman should be able to achieve a mind-numbing, body-quaking orgasm each time an opportunity presents itself. Otherwise, what's the point?"

The show on Thursday will be Wild Thought's official debut on the platform. It is expected to be a show full of surprises. Jules L. Grant is encouraging questions from Clubhouse and YouTube audience members. The hosts shared, "I expect to laugh the entire show. I never saw this coming but I'm excited about Thursday's show. It is going to be shocking and hilarious."
