

Alex Blair's New Album "The Eclipse"

Hot New Album from DFW's Sexy Soulful Songstress

Dallas, Texas Oct 4, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Social media star, rising adult entertainer, and powerhouse musician Alex Blair shares her journey to self-empowerment and love with her new album "Eclipse". In her new era of growth, Alex shares her journey with others who are experiencing a huge shift in their lives. Her album "Eclipse" takes you from after-breakup solitude to a girl's night on the town, finding love within yourself regardless of what anyone else thinks or says about you, into spirituality in growing to love yourself, your body, and all the emotions that come with change. She understands that no one really knows who she is on the inside, and shares that inner part of discovering her likes and needs on “The Eclipse”.

Her musicianship stems from a deep-rooted love of soul, and an extensive performance and educational background in jazz and musical theater. Alex Blair’s sultry, velvet sound, and unmatched on-stage presence make for a dynamic performance every time she steps on stage. Alex had the opportunity to open up for R&B artist Ginuwine with her original project “Blayr” in May 2018 in Austin. In 2014 Alex graduated with a degree in performance from the world-renowned jazz school at the University of North Texas. She received numerous awards including a coveted jazz scholarship from the University of North Texas and as an outstanding performer at the Berklee College of Music jazz festival. She has an extensive history in musical theater, studying both vocal technique and acting with the nationally recognized teacher and author Rhonda Carlson.

Alex spent 2019 touring 32 cities around the country with guitarist Stone Mecca (Earth, Wind & Fire, RZA). She had the opportunity to perform alongside the legendary Jerome Benton from the band “The Time” and Andre Cymone (Prince). In October 2019 she sang alongside Stone Mecca as they opened for the Wu-Tang clan on their Texas tour.

Not only is Alex a heavy-hitting performer, but she is also a talented recording artist. Alex has been working with Drive 35 productions for the voice’s official karaoke app (the voice: sing and connect) as an on-call studio vocalist. You can hear her vocals featured on the UNT jazz singers’ downbeat award-nominated album “I Can’t Help It” (2015). Alex was recognized for her vocals on downbeat award winner Kyle Gordon’s arrangement of “my own and only love” (2016). Her debut album “Taste” was released in November 2017 under the name Blayr and is available on all major music carriers. “Season of the Curvy Fox” project written and produced by Alex herself, was a play on her alias “Curvy Fox” which accentuated her sexy side and showcased her vocal ability (2020). Her latest release “The Eclipse” is a soulful sound that taps into Alex’s R&B side.

“The Eclipse” is sexy and full of flavor. There is a song for everyone on this album including the party girls, couples, independent people, smokers, secret lovers, and dance floor steppers, to name a few. Since Alex’s musical roots started in Jazz, and she brings that classic, jazzy vibe to her song “Free”. Her single “If” is a soulful love song reminiscent of 90’s R&B and in essence a throwback to when you recorded songs from the radio on your tape player. Her music will be “Stuck With You” because this is an album you want to hit play and roll the music all the way through. This is only a “Tayste” of what’s to come when you experience “The Eclipse”.

“This is an album I can listen to all the way through.” Mokah Soulfly

“I got chills listening to some of these songs.” Antone Almabert

Alex Blair wants to share her emotional journey with you because this album is very relatable for a lot of people going through change. She is no longer shadowed by her past and eclipsing a new era of growth and self-love. Alex Blair’s new album “The Eclipse” was released on September 9, 2022. You can listen to “The Eclipse” everywhere the music is streamed.
