New York City, New York Oct 18, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A committed family physician, Dr. Kashino was affiliated with Dignity Health Medical Group - Dominican, welcoming patients at their offices in Soquel, California, until he recently retired after 43 years in practice.

The family physicians at Dignity Health Medical Group - Dominican provide complete care for the entire family, diagnosing and treating a variety of health conditions and diseases for patients of all ages. In addition to diagnosing and treating acute and chronic illnesses, they provide routine health screenings and preventive care to prevent illnesses before they develop.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, Dr. Kashino earned his medical degree from the University of Washington School of Medicine in 1976 and completed his residency in family medicine at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital - Los Angeles in 1979.

As a testament to his success, the doctor was board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice family medicine and its sub-specialties. He was also honored by his peers by being elected Chief of Staff at Dominican Hospital for three years from 1999 through 2001 and later as President of the Santa Cruz County Medical Society in 2005.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

An authority in his field, Dr. Kashino has been the recipient of the Patients' Choice Award (2018, 2015).
