

KaJ Labs Announces Jot Art (JOT) IDO and Previews Finesse Shadow Warriors P2E Game Supporting LUNC burn.

The official Jot Art Initial DEX Offering (IDO) is live!

Singapore, Singapore Nov 2, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The official Jot Art Initial DEX Offering \(IDO\) is live! Offered on multiple networks, the IDO is available throughout October and into November. Lithosphere (LITHO) core developer, KaJ Labs, also announced that Finesse: Shadow Warriors season preview is also available for download/play.

Jot Art's native token JOT is a payment and governance token for the Jot Art metaverse. Players earn JOT by playing various games in the Jot Art metaverse and through user-generated content. JOT holders receive rewards for multiple actions encompassing staking tokens, engaging in key governing votes, and paying for internal services within all Jot Art games.

Shadow Warriors will be Jot Art's first Initial Game Offering (IGO) and the first chapter in its Finesse game series. The P2E multi-player game officially launches on Dec. 18, 2022, and contains RPG elements, combined with a highly-absorbing storyline. Finesse games can be played for free in PvE mode. To battle PvP in 1v1, the purchase of an NFT is required. The KaJ Labs foundation has allocated more than \$550 million to accelerate the burn of Terra Luna Classic (LUNC) in the Finesse Shadow Warriors P2E game.

JOT

Lithosphere launched its Jot Art Finesse Genesis NFT collection on Oct. 1, 2022. Collectors can mint

one character for free and use LITHO to pay for any unique NFTs in the collection for the Finesse games.

A limited number of characters are available in the Genesis collection, are divided equally between male and female, and will be defined in five rarity categories. NFTs in the Warriors collection will have five rarity levels and NFTs in the Warriors collection are a gamer's ticket to the Jot Art metaverse.
