Los Angeles, California Oct 14, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Lost in Terra Dimension is a science fiction original screenplay that was curated by Kat Lehto and Lizelle Gutierrez; featuring talents such as John Moamar, Zoey Grayce, Stan Divranos, Ben Ho, Mika Cigic, Kari Lane, Joel Harkham, Beatrix Fox, Colin Shull. This Los Angeles film centers around two sisters from another dimension (Spacle and Zeandra) who get stuck in the 25th dimension, a dream reality.

Buena Luz Media & Blondietimestwo productions induce a magical experience in the movie entitled “Lost in Terra Dimension.” This action-pack adventure film was initially released on April 2, 2022. “Lost in Terra Dimension” is available to enjoy on the Lost in Terra Dimension YouTube channel and Amazon Prime.

The story begins when two sisters get stuck in a dream reality and are forced to fight for survival against an evil force. While being transported to this alternative reality they discover that nothing is as it seems when they encounter the ruthless dictator Dom-X (John Moamar), who separates them and keeps coming up with evil plots against the sisters. Despite the world being a dream, there is no way out. In order to return home, Spacle sacrifices her happiness staying with the dictator thus leaving her sister behind in the hopes that she will find a way back to her own world. Fortunately, they get help from Telda (Zoey Grayce) and the other fairies to guide them back. Zeandra does not give up hope and embarks on a journey through the dimensions in search of her lost sister. Their only hope is to find the lost key and to keep going. They can’t touch the skin of the people in the dimensions. Otherwise, they become weak. Both may encounter love interests throughout the story.

The critics agree this is a must-see film. The Video Librarian wrote “Lost in Terra Dimension has a few hidden games to hook the audience, such as Dom-X’s pet, Horse Zia. He (Dom X) has also created a deadlier dimension to punish his opponents and those who defy him. The place is packed with demons, ghosts, and killer clowns who, at one point, attack Zeandra, and she fights back.”

Along with the Independent Critic writing “It's obvious that Lehto and Gutierrez have a nice chemistry throughout Lost in Terra Dimension and that's chemistry that helps the story move along quite nicely. The film's real secret weapon, however, is Zoey Grayce as Telda, who seems intuitively to understand the type of tone needed here to make a low-budget sci-fi effort work.”

Kat Lehto and Lizelle Gutierrez are directors who have worked on many independent films. They have worked together in governing Lost in Terra Dimension (2022). For further information on this project, check out the website at <https://lostinterradimension.com/> or read more reviews on IMDb.
