New Braunfels, Texas Oct 10, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Mystery recording entertainment is excited to declare the release of the new album from EazyElz, Hydrogen which will be available worldwide on Monday, October 10, 2022. EazyElz whose real name is Damen Ellison was born in Queens, New York on July 19, 1976. Rap and hip hop had always been a part of his life and definitely influenced his upbringing as well as attitude. From an early age, Eazy's talents were apparent in talent shows as a kid and in home videos, he would make with other kids. Nothing ever came to fruition due to confidence, family tragedies, and many relocations.

Rap was always in the background but due to other distractions, it was never made a priority. It also did not help that Eazy believed he was a terrible rapper. Video games became further enforced all distractions. Soon basketball and football had all the attention and rap was ignored for years. During a disturbing time while living in the Dallas area Eazy turned toward writing raps as a way to cope. This time he gained confidence but not enough to invest in his music.

Hoby rapping continued through many more adult years as did a growing air of confidence. During 2020 many things began falling into place both good and bad that would allow Eazy to have more free time which always meant thinking time. The idea of becoming a rapper professional was planned out and then implemented with the first official recording being submitted to a distributor on the same day he decided to start his own record label.

Years of working and being financially savvy were also big factors in making the decision to pursue a music career. Had the need for overtime or multiple jobs arisen music would have not been pursued. Many things had fallen into place and shortly after making a mental commitment budget and equipment now yielded quality.

Excited and amazed at the newly founded potential Eazy knew it was time to take the leap and began making music as an independent artist. A quote that Eazy uses for motivation is "I gave up all my time for work so I wouldn't have to work for all time".
