

Rabbi Moshe Rabin Provides Scholarship Funding for Student Entrepreneurs, Available to Apply Now

Fort Lauderdale, Florida Oct 5, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - The Moshe Rabin Scholarship for Student Entrepreneurs is a scholarship that provides funding for a student who is planning to become an entrepreneur or launch a business in the future. The scholarship is available for all university and college students who are studying on the road to becoming entrepreneurs in the future. Those in high school with a dream to launch a business can also apply for the scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded to the most deserving student based on an essay competition. The winner of the competition will provide the best essay in an essay contest that answers the question “Describe a sector of business which could use significant improvement, and how you would use your role as a business owner to solve the problem”. The winning student will be awarded a total of $1,000 that will be awarded towards their tuition. The application deadline is December 15, 2022, and the winning student will be announced on January 15, 2023. All eligible students are encouraged to submit their applications in word document format to apply@mosherabinscholarship.com. Along with your essay, do not forget to write your full name, phone number, address, email address, name of high school, name of university currently enrolled in, your personal bio, and GPA.

The cost of higher education is skyrocketing. With tough economic conditions and a lack of funds, many students are left with no choice but to work part-time or full-time to afford their education. Some students lose hope and end up dropping out of school. No one understands how difficult the road to becoming an entrepreneur in the future can be than Moshe Rabin. He also knows how finances can burden many talented students, especially those who have dreams to launch businesses in the future. Although the path can be rewarding, he also understands that it can be tough and with many challenges. For that reason, Moshe would like to give back to the community by rewarding a star student. He is hoping that through his scholarship, the most deserving student will have more time to focus on studying and gain the knowledge needed to launch a successful business. Through his scholarship, he is also wishing to raise awareness of what students go through on the road to becoming entrepreneurs in the future.

Moshe Rabin, the person behind the scholarship for future entrepreneurs is the president of the Alliance of Education. He is also an executive director of Rohr Bais Chaya Academy and Rabbi of Rohr Bais Chaya Synagogues. Through his experience, he knows what is needed to become a successful entrepreneur. He also understands how difficult the road can be as young entrepreneurs start the journey to launch and run a successful business, and because of this, he would like to give back to the community and the future generation of entrepreneurs. All eligible students are advised to head to Moshe's official scholarship website and make their applications.
