

Yoel Razvozov, Israel's Minister of Tourism, has been making headlines for his recent video portraying himself as "007"

Millions of views for the clip so far

Dallas, Texas Oct 28, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Yoel Razvozov, Israel's Minister of Tourism, has been making headlines for his recent video portraying himself as "007" - James Bond.

The new clip promoting tourism in Israel, starring Yoel Razvozov as the latest 007, is a hit. The clip, which was released on YouTube last week, has already been viewed over a million times.

The Israel Ministry of Tourism has released a new video featuring Yoel Razvozov, the country's Minister of Tourism, as James Bond. The video is part of the Ministry's campaign to promote Israel as a tourist destination. It is hoped that the video will make people see Israel in a new light and encourage them to visit the country.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6dJwjhCYbGY>

Razvozov, a former judoka representing Israel at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games, is no stranger to the entertainment world. The 42-year-old minister has been widely praised for his creative approach to marketing Israel as a tourist destination.

The video has garnered rave reviews from viewers who say it perfectly captures Israel's tourism potential. With more and more people worldwide taking notice of Israel's natural beauty and attractions, it's no wonder that Razvozov is being hailed as a tourism hero. Thanks to his efforts, more people than ever before are considering a trip to the Holy Land.

Media Contact

Lindy cox

aakashpatel1289@gmail.com

Dallas, TX 75223

Source : stand for Israel

See on IssueWire