

Acro Service Corporation is named 2022 Supplier of the Year

Livonia, Michigan Nov 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Acro Service Corporation (Acro) was named Michigan Minority Supplier Development Council's (MMSDC) Minority Supplier of the Year – Class IV winner at the MMSDC 2022 ACE Awards Gala held on October 4, 2022, at the Suburban Showplace in Novi, Michigan.

The Supplier of the Year is presented annually to Minority Business Enterprises (MBEs) who have excelled in growing their businesses, enhanced their operations, and actively participated in MBE-to-MBE purchasing. Nominated by other MMSDC MBEs and corporate members, candidates for Supplier of the Year are required to provide essential data points to MMSDC for review. Submitted information gets tabulated and evaluated to determine the organization that has achieved the most significant growth in its business and MBE purchasing during the calendar year.

“We are honored to be one of the trailblazers contributing to the expansion and growth of minority and diverse business communities,” said President and CEO Ron Shahani. He added, “This award is a testament to our culture & commitment to advancing diversity within Acro and its client programs. I would like to thank all our employees and partners who have supported us and helped us achieve this honor.”
