Stuart, Florida Nov 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Award-Winning Golf Coach & Top 100 World Recognized Golf Instructor Arlen Bento Jr. has added a new state-of-the-art HD Golf Simulator & First Tee Junior Golf Program at his Golf Performance Center in Stuart Florida.

Coach Bento offers year-round comprehensive indoor & outdoor golf training programs for all levels of adult players and junior golfers at his indoor golf performance center in Stuart FL & outdoor golf academy at the Saints Golf Course in Port St. Lucie. The program is based on his "Shoot Par Now" program, Coach Bento's flagship program.

"Shoot Par Now" is a comprehensive program that features indoor golf lessons with state-of-the-art HD golf simulator, computer video analysis, 3D swing imaging, and club fitting with loft & lie bending. Players are developed using Coach Bento's proven skills-based learning system which includes his 100-point practice guides. Outdoor lessons include small group beginner, intermediate, and advanced player training sessions, skill testing, course play, tournament strategies & more.

Players start with a detailed analysis of their golf games with attainable goal setting from Coach Bento. Each player receives a custom improvement plan which includes weekly indoor golf lesson sessions, weekly outdoor golf training sessions, monthly skill-based testing combines, and tournament tracking using Coach Bento's system.

Players who follow the system have great success at improving their skill sets which dramatically improves course play and golf enjoyment.

The "Shoot Par Now" program offers new players a chance to make a par right away, each new player learns how to play the golf course by making every hole a par 4. New players start from just 25 yards away from the green on the golf course for 9 holes, players navigate a chip and put to make a par 4 right away. In this program, players play 9 holes, with a par of 36, if a new player accomplishes their goal of scoring 36, they move to a new level and distance away from the hole. Ultimately, players progress from 25 yards to 50, 100, 150, 200, and then to the tee box, in this program emphasis is on putting, chipping, approaching irons, mid irons, long irons/hybrids, and then finally driver.

Coach Bento is recognized as one of the top golf instructors in the world with over 25+ years of experience working with some of the best players in the country. He is the former Head Professional at PGA Country Club at PGA Village in Port St. Lucie and the Director of Golf at Eagle Marsh Golf Club in Jensen Beach where he was recognized with multiple national awards in the golf industry. Coach Bento is originally from Hilo, Hawaii, and is a graduate of the University of Hawaii. He made his way to Florida as an aspiring Tour Professional and played professional golf as a fully sponsored player. For the last two decades, he helped develop one of the top high school golf programs in the state of Florida, winning multiple Coach of the year awards, sending players to major college golf programs like Stanford, Duke, LSU, Alabama, UCONN, New Mexico, and Houston & many others.

Coach Bento has developed his own proven system for training golfers that will work for improvement at any skill level called the "Shoot Par Now". All players start indoors at his golf center in Stuart where a player is analyzed with an HD golf simulator, computer video & 3D swing imaging. After analysis, Coach Bento works with each player to create a complete comprehensive game improvement program that includes instruction, skill-based learning, course play strategy, and club fitting. All players receive a video recap of each indoor lesson for long-term learning after every training session. This total game improvement program has helped develop NCAA college National Champions, NCAA College All-Americans and NCAA College All-Conference players, Florida All-State High School players & Florida All-Area High School players. The complete program is easy to follow and guarantees success for every player. Learn, Practice & Play Better is the motto of the "Shoot Par Now".
