

For The Very First Time Asha Bhosle Is Giving Her Voice for Symphony in 'Life Is Good'

Mumbai, Maharashtra Nov 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Asha Bhosle is a globally reputed singer of the Bollywood industry who has given enormous music in her career. She is known for her contribution as a leading singer but she has never given her voice to the symphony. First time in her career she is doing that in an upcoming movie, titled 'Life Is Good'. The movie is directed by Anant Narayan Mahadevan and produced by Anand Shukla. The song Asha Bhosle is giving voice starts with 'rut bhige tan Ghar aayi thi...'. The lyricist of the soundtrack is Manvendra and composed by the artist Abhishek Ray. Asha Bhosle and Abhishek Ray know each other for a long time. He came to know her more when he started working with Gulzar Saab for the album 'Udas Paani'.

They know each other for a long time, which is why Abhishek Ray approached her for this project which has made her interested too. Along with that, in the movie, Jackie Shroff has been cast, which has made it even more interesting for her. After recording the track Asha Bhosle said 'today's day is special for me as my dream has come true. It was my long-time desire to give a voice to the symphony and later I started thinking that maybe it was not in my luck. But out of the blue, I got this opportunity and now I can say my music circle is completed. What's more. This is for Jaggu's film. I love and respect him very much. For my favorite actor's film, I got this chance. What more I can ask for, I really thank God for this'.

On the other hand, Jackie Shroff is also very excited that Asha Bhosle is a part of the same project. He has given his statement by saying 'music played a very important role in shaping up my career. My film "Hero" had chartbuster songs and since then I am very much inclined with the music of my films. I feel blessed that Ashajee got the chance to sing symphony thru my film. This symphony is special for me as it's in the voice of Ashajee and I can say proudly that yes, life is good'.

Everyone is very much happy with how things are turning out. The composer Abhishek Ray has said that the song is a very important part of the movie. and it has become even more beautiful with the presence of Asha Bhosle. The legendary singer has given a whole new charm to the soundscape with her enigmatic contribution.
